

Dear Ag Vision,

I am a university lecturer and author of an Agri-Tourism book. I feel we, the local community, need to help support "small" farms and ranches in their effort to "stay on the land".

One way in which the local community can do this is to work toward a law that allows small farmers to produce and sell their own products to tourists.

Regards, Mrs. B. L. Homsy
University of California, Santa Barbara