Audio recommendations

For individual participation, use a headset with built in microphone similar in quality to the Plantronics Audio 655 DSP (best option), a Shure Microphone (SM48 or better*) with external speakers (better option) or if neither of these are available, use a telephone line (good option). Please do not use the computer's built in microphone and speakers.

For group participation such as in a conference room, use a Shure Microphone as above with external speakers (best option), a polycom or equivalent device (better option), or if neither of these are available use a telephone line that is capable of being muted.

* The Shure Microphone can be connected to a computer USB port using a Shure X2u adapter.
