

ANIMAL CARE PROGRAM

GUIDANCE: SHIPPING DOCUMENT REQUIREMENTS

Purpose

This guidance explains the marking requirements for all documents of title¹ and shipping documents² accompanying covered product³ moving into and within California.

Scope

Shipping document markings will identify covered products as compliant or noncompliant with the HSC 25990\(b\) and are a requirement of Animal Confinement regulations.

Instructions

All documents of title and shipping documents of covered product entering California or transported within the state for the three different categories below shall include the statement indicated in quotes, which must be legible and plainly stamped or printed.

1. Compliant covered product destined for commercial sale:

- Shell eggs and liquid eggs - “Egg CA Prop 12 Compliant”
Shipments must also meet the requirements of 3 CCR § 1354 and 3 CCR § 1358.4
- Whole veal meat - “Veal CA Prop 12 Compliant”
- Whole pork meat - “Pork CA Prop 12 Compliant”

2. Noncompliant covered product that enters California exclusively for purposes of transshipment, export, donation, sale to federal agencies or sales which occur on tribal lands and not destined for commercial sale in California:

- Shell eggs, liquid eggs, whole veal meat, whole pork meat - one of these statements indicated in quotes; “For Export”, “For Transshipment”, or “Not Prop 12 Compliant”

3. Noncompliant covered product transactions between establishment under mandatory inspection under Federal Meat Inspection Act or Egg Products Inspection Act:

- Shell eggs and liquid eggs - “Only for use at” followed by “G” and destination establishment number. Both origin and destination facilities must be under mandatory inspection under the Egg Products Inspection Act.
- Whole veal meat and whole pork meat - “Only for use at” followed by “M” and destination establishment number. Both origin and destination facilities must be under mandatory inspection under the Federal Meat Inspection Act.

NOTE: Shipping documents are considered “records”⁴ that must be maintained for two (2) years from the date of creation.

¹Document of title as defined in 3 CCR §§ 1320\(j\), 1321\(m\), and 1322\(m\).

²Shipping documents include shipping invoices, bills of lading, and shipping manifests.

³Covered product as defined in 3 CCR § 1326\(l\).
