

2016 State Water Efficiency and Enhancement Program Irrigation Training Resources

---

The California Department of Food and Agriculture encourages agricultural operations participate in irrigation training regarding agricultural water management in order to maximize water and energy savings from State Water Efficiency and Enhancement Program (SWEEP) projects.

Applicants that indicate a representative(s) from their agricultural operation (e.g., operation manager and irrigator) will obtain training in their application will be eligible to receive additional consideration during the review process. Applicants may select one of the training resources below or another course that is relevant to their project type.

Vendor	Course	Information and Registration
Irrigation Association	Online course catalog (many courses available)	https://store.irrigation.org/SearchResults.aspx?Category=OLCLA
Irrigation Association	In-person training catalog (nationwide)	https://www.irrigation.org/mastercalendar.aspx?id=0
Cal Poly Irrigation Training and Research Center	Irrigation System Evaluation Short Courses	http://itrc.org/classes/iseclass.htm
Cal Poly Irrigation Training and Research Center	Designer/Manager School of Irrigation	http://itrc.org/classes/desmgr.htm
Fresno State Center for Irrigation Technology	Irrigation Seminars (given periodically)	Check the events page at : http://www.fresnostate.edu/jcast/cit/announcements-events/
California Agricultural Irrigation Association	Partnered courses with California Community Colleges	See a local community college course catalog