TO: WEIGHTS AND MEASURES OFFICIALS

Subject: Notice of Approval of Regulatory Action CCR Title 4, Chapter 3 Device Administration – Inspections and Fees

A regulation to amend California Code of Regulations (CCR), Title 4, Division 9, Chapter 3, Sections 4070 through 4075, regarding the inspection frequencies and administrative fees of weighing and measuring devices used for commercial purposes, has been approved by the Office of Administrative Law and filed with the Secretary of State. The effective date is April 28, 2021.

These regulations establish inspection frequencies for new commercial devices, make clarifying amendments to the procedures a county must use to request an alternative inspection plan, limit the time an alternative inspection plan is approved, amend the device administrative fee amounts, and amend the maximum amount a county may retain to collect and remit the device administrative fees.
