

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FOOD & AGRICULTURE

Karen Ross, Secretary

Staff Workshop on Draft Language for the Weights and Measures Requirements for Software Systems Used To Provide On-Demand Transportation Services

The California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA), Division of Measurement Standards (DMS) will conduct a pre-rulemaking workshop on the specifications, tolerances, and other technical requirements for software systems used to provide on-demand transportation services.

AGENDA

(Revised on November 30, 2015)

Thursday, December 3, 2015

9:00 am – 2:30 pm

California Department of Food and Agriculture

1220 N Street

First Floor – Auditorium

Sacramento, CA 95814

- Introductions Kristin Macey, CDFA
- Overview of Weights and Measures Laws and Regulations
Kristin Macey, CDFA
- Overview of Software Systems in relation with Weights and Measures Requirements
Kristin Macey, CDFA
- National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST): U.S. National Work Group on Taximeters and Global Positioning Systems Subcommittee
John Barton, NIST
- Review of Draft Text for Transportation Network Systems Code in California Code of Regulations
Kristin Macey, CDFA
- Public Comments and request for Written Comments by December 31, 2015
- Adjourn

