Motor Oil Dealer Permit Number: _____

For Quarter Ending:

In accordance with California Business and Professions Code (BPC) Division 5, Chapter 14, Article 4, and the California Code of Regulations (CCR) Title 4, Division 9, Chapter 8, the first Motor Oil Dealer who produces, sells, or distributes motor oil in California, whether or not packaged in retail containers, shall pay $0.04 (4 cents) on each gallon produced, sold, or distributed. Payments are made on a quarterly basis.

If no sales and/or purchases were made during the quarter, complete the form, mark "NONE" under Column C, sign it and return to the Department.

Check here if you are producing, selling or distributing quantities less than or equal to 5000 gallons per year and wish to apply for authorization to file an annual return. Your reporting period will be established beginning the month in which your application is accepted (BPC §13433 and CCR §4304(f)).
