Revised – April 14, 2021 Approval – April 14, 2021

The following Bylaws represent the structure, responsibilities, and operating procedures for the California Department of Food and Agriculture's Disability Advisory Committee. These procedures were developed and adopted by Disability Advisory Committee pursuant to approval by the Secretary of the California Department of Food and Agriculture (Department Secretary).

ARTICLE I. TITLE AND PURPOSE

Section 1: Title

The name of this advisory body shall be the Disability Advisory Committee (DAC or Committee) of the California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA or Department).

Section 2: Purpose

The DAC's purpose is to assist CDFA in its efforts to promote a diverse work force, equal treatment of person (s) with disabilities (PWD) and an increased awareness of the abilities of PWD.

ARTICLE II. AUTHORITY

Section 1

The establishment and activities of the DAC is mandated by Government Code Section 19795(b)(1) State Civil Service Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Program .

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Number and Composition of Members

The DAC shall be composed of employees of the Department with disabilities or those who have an interest in disability issues. Committee members will submit an application signed/approved by their supervisor to the office of CDFA's EEO Officer.

The committee will work to keep a minimum and maximum number of members in order to keep the committee productively working at serving its purpose which was mentioned in Article I, Section 2. The minimum and maximum number of members may be amended pending the needs of the committee after discussion and a vote.

As of the approval date stated on this version of the by-laws, the DAC will have a minimum of seven members and a maximum of 11 members.

The EEO Officer shall serve as the committee advisor and provide additional support and guidance as necessary to the committee.

Section 2: Terms of Appointment

A member may serve for an unlimited number of one-year terms. The program year for the Committee is January 1 through December 31.

Section 3: Appointment of Members

The EEO Office will announce and solicit applications from CDFA if more members are needed. Interested employees may submit a DAC application to the EEO Officer for review.

Section 4: Support Services

Resources for printing and mailing DAC memos, newsletters, and correspondence shall be provided by the EEO Office.

ARTICLE IV. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1. Educate and elevate awareness of and support for persons with disabilities.
- 2. Recruit and increase representation of employees with disabilities as well as eliminate barriers to employment and public sector services.
- 3. Serve as an advisory to the Department Secretary, Executive Offices, Divisions, and Programs regarding implementation and maintenance of equal employment opportunity activities for persons/employees with disabilities, and issues relating to the Americans with Disabilities Act.
- 4. Recommend, coordinate, and implement projects upon approval by the Department Secretary, that will improve the personnel practices and employment opportunities for PWD to facilitate their representation at all levels within the department.
- 5. Maintaining representation and participation on the State Disability Advisory Council.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS. LOGISTICS AND ADMINISTRATION

Section 1: Regular Meetings

The DAC will establish an annual calendar of meetings which shall be posted on the CDFA/EEO Office website. Any changes to the meeting dates will be posted on the CDFA/EEO Office website as soon as dates are confirmed. Meeting agendas shall be drafted by the DAC Chairperson in consultation with the EEO Officer and DAC Officers.

Section 2: Special Meetings

Special meetings may be called as needed by members.
