Criteria to become a Lead Instructor:

To take the Animal Food Lead Instructor course you must both be an approved Animal Food Lead Instructor Candidate AND have taken the Preventive Controls for Animal Food course.

If you would like to become a Lead Instructor then you must be an FSPCA approved Animal Food Lead Instructor candidate, there is no way around this prerequisite.

If you are not an approved FSCPA Animal Food Lead Instructor candidate and would like to be, go to the FSPCA Animal Food Training webpage and submit your lead instructor application.

The review process takes approximately 3-4 weeks.

If you have not taken the Preventive Controls for Animal Food Course but are an approved Lead Instructor Candidate then go to LMS Admin and they can hold a seat for you.

Contact LMSAdmin@ifpti.org to hold position in the March 22-24, 2017 Animal Food Lead Instructor Course in Sacramento, CA.
