Food and Drug Administration (i.e. where the ingredients are listed in descending order of quantity.)

Note: Authority cited: Sections 407, 42682, 47000, 47001, 47002, 47003, 47004 and 47005, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Sections 861, 47000, 47002, 47003, 47004, 47005 and 47022, Food and Agricultural Code.

Add Section 1392.4.1 to read:

§ 1392.4.1. Administrative Civil Penalties for Direct Marketing.

In applying Section 47025 of the California Food and Agricultural Code, the secretary and county agricultural commissioners shall use the provisions of this section to determine the violation class and amount of the penalty.

(a) For the purposes of this section, violation classes are designated as "Serious," "Moderate," and "Minor".

(1) "Serious". Violations which preclude or significantly interfere with enforcement, or those which cause significant false, misleading or deceptive business practices or for any violation which is a repeat of a violation of sub-paragraph (2) that occurred within a two-year period and which resulted in conviction of an infraction or misdemeanor charge or an administrative civil penalty.

(2) "Moderate". Violations which undermine enforcement, or those in which there is a potential for intermediate level of consumer or competitive harm; or for any violation which is a repeat of a violation of sub-paragraph (3) that occurred within a two-year period and which resulted in conviction of an infraction or misdemeanor charge or an administrative civil penalty.

(3) "Minor". Violations that have minimal adverse effect on consumers or equitable competition in the marketplace.

(b) As stated in paragraph (a) repeat violations may result in an escalation of violation class except those found under Table A, Section II. Market Operator Violations, Code Sections 1392.6(d), 1392.6(d), (e), (f), and 1392.6(g). Repeat violations in these areas would remain in the "Minor" violation type.

(c) Table A shall be used to establish the level of severity of a particular violation and the corresponding penalty range for "Serious," "Moderate," and "Minor" violation classes. Except where specific violation parameters are provided, the violation column in Table A is an abbreviated description of the corresponding section in the California Food and Agricultural Code, Division 17. Fruit, Nut and Vegetable Standards, and Title 3, Article 6.5. Direct Marketing, California Code of Regulations.
