Proposed Block Grant Program

POTENTIAL FRAMEWORK FOR HEALTHY SOILS PROGRAM (HSP) AND STATE WATER EFFICIENCY AND ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM(SWEEP)

Potential Benefits

Enable greater administrative efficiencies and overcome resource constraints for CDFA

Block grant structure incorporates direct stakeholder feedback

Address farmer equity in program access with greater flexibility and enhanced local technical assistance

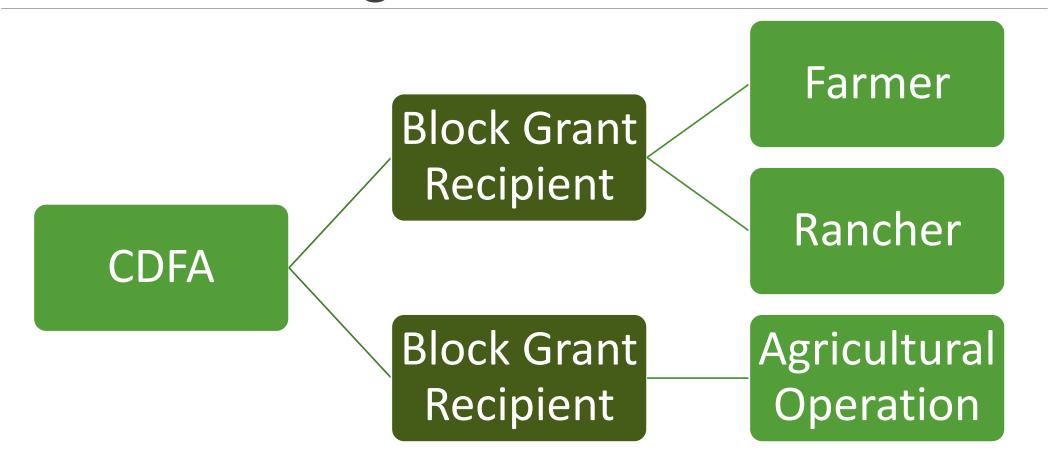

Regional support networks for farmers and ranchers

Capacity building through supporting local partnerships

Potential Program Structure

Potential Eligibility

Potential Applicant Organizations

- California-based non-profits organizations
- RCDs
- Irrigation Districts
- GSAs
- Air Pollution control districts
- Universities and ag colleges
- Land Trusts
- Tribes
- Partnerships Community education specialists, agricultural cooperatives

Potential On-Farm Grant Beneficiaries

 Farmers and ranchers including ag operations associated with Tribes, non-profits, urban farms, community gardens

Potential Requirements

Technical Assistance Required

Controls for Conflicts of Interest

No charges for services

Every block grant awardee commit to at least 25% of support to SDFRs

Prioritize and track projects that benefit AB 1550 Priority Populations

Potential Evaluation Criteria

Qualifications

Partnership

Merit and Feasibility of Workplan

Statement of Need

Budget

Potential Reporting Requirements

Ongoing communication, as on-farm projects are enrolled

 On-farm summary for projects entering program, GHG calcs (&water savings), project design and letter of commitment from growers

Block grantee reports on:

- TA metrics and expenditures
- Admin activities
- On-farm project close outs

Final Report

- Total Practice Metrics
- Total Equity Metrics

Potential Reporting Requirements

Block Grant Recipients will:

- Submit invoices at least quarterly, no more than monthly
- Receive advance payments with justification
- After advance is liquidated another advance can be requested

Today's Discussion

Initiate Listening Sessions

Prepare Draft Request for Grant Applications

Public Comment Period

Review of Feedback

Next Steps