Front Cover:

Photos from the first hydrilla eradication project in California, in Lake Ellis, Marysville, Yuba County, 1976. Top: Lake Ellis before treatment, partially drained in preparation. Middle: after excavating the lake sediments and during the Vapam treatment. In the foreground, a tractor is ripping in the fumigant. In the background, sprinklers apply water to hold the fumigant in the soil. Bottom: Lake Ellis after the project ended, in approximately 1980.
